Section to be completed BEFORE THE MOBILITY

I. PROPOSED MOBILITY PROGRAMME

Main subject field[6]: Philology (Turkish Language and Literature)

Level (select the main one): Short cycle (EQF level 5) ☒; Bachelor or equivalent first cycle (EQF level 6) ☐; Master or equivalent second cycle (EQF level 7) ☐; Doctoral or equivalent third cycle (EQF level 8) ☐

Number of students at the receiving institution benefiting from the teaching programme: 75

Number of teaching hours: 10

Language of instruction: Turkish / English

Overall objectives of the mobility:

• To deepen institutional collaboration between Turkish Language and Literature departments in Turkey and Jordan through joint research projects, academic publications, and exchange programs.

• To strengthen philology as an interdisciplinary field of study by encouraging the sharing of knowledge and experience between higher education institutions in Turkey and Jordan, focusing particularly on cultural partnerships, language, and literature.

• To foster dialogue between academic communities in Turkey and Jordan on issues such as language, literature, and cultural transfer.

Added value of the mobility (in the context of the modernisation and internationalisation strategies of the institutions involved):

To transfer the experiences of the host university to the home university. To attract the attention of students at the host university and introduce them to the Turkish higher education system. To initiate new bilateral agreements between universities.

Content of the teaching programme (including the virtual component, if applicable):

Day 1 (19/04/2026): General information on the status of Turkology studies in the world and Türkiye. (2 hours / 15 students)
Day 2 (20/07/2026): Methods used in teaching Turkish to foreigners. (2 hours / 15 students)
Day 3 (21/07/2026): Traditions registered on Turkey's Intangible Cultural Heritage List. (2 hours / 15 students)
Day 4 (22/07/2026): The stages of the Turkish language and major literary works from the beginning to the present. (2 hours / 15 students)
Day 5 (23/07/2026): The use of cultural heritage as soft power and its widespread impact. (2 hours / 15 students)

Expected outcomes and impact (e.g. on the professional development of the teaching staff member and on the competences of students at both institutions):

This mobility is expected to enable participating faculty members to gain knowledge and experience, as well as develop new teaching methods. It is also intended to familiarize students at the host institution with Turkish culture and learn about academic studies in Türkiye. It is anticipated that
